

SKS Detachable Magazine

Filing the Factory Wooden Stock

Polymer magazines are a little wider than the original factory box mags. If you are using this magazine with a factory wooden stock, you will need to remove some material from the magazine well of the stock.

If there is any pressure on the sides of the magazine, it will cause feeding problems. File enough so that there is no pressure on the magazines.

